

Announcing WHC Raffle - Original watercolor by renowned Artist Naima Rauam

The Working Harbor Committee is pleased to announce our on-line raffle of the original watercolor painting "Docking a Freighter" by renowned New York Harbor and Fulton Fish Market artist Naima Rauam.

Value $900. Framed size 17"h x 21"w.

To see a larger preview, visit www.artpm.com/ArtbyNaimaRauamDockingaFreighterOriginalWatercolor.htm

(Or visit www.artpm.com and look at Original Watercolors, lower right)

The painting - along with other works by the artist - will be on display at the Working Harbor Committee Spring Gala on 11 March 2010 at India House, in Lower Manhattan. You need not be present to win. We will ship as needed.

Raffle tickets are $25 for a single ticket or $100 for 5 tickets.

To purchase tickets on-line, visit www.nycharities.org/events/EventLevels.aspx?ETID=787

(Or visit www.WorkingHarbor.Org – opening screen)

Or send a check to

Working Harbor Committee
455 West 43rd Street, New York, NY 10036
Be sure and include contact info

100% of the proceeds will benefit the programs of the Working Harbor Committee

About the Artist

Artist Naima Rauam lives in New York City and specializes in scenes of the Fulton Fish Market, South Street Seaport and the New York waterfront, including tugboats and bridges. Naima works in watercolor, charcoal, oil and pastel. ♦ Please visit Naima Rauam's website at www.artpm.com to learn more about this extraordinary artist and her work.